

Round Table Topic: Grapevine

Date: 1 March 2019

Moderator: Rhodes B Secretary: Not identified

Identified Topics:

1. Introductions and Service Positions. Ginger representing Grapevine and La Viña made a brief introduction. Grapevine is contemporary, written by members, for members. She then reviewed books published by Grapevine.

2. How do round table participants use Grapevine? Individual use for recovery. Grapevine meetings often use stories. Personal recovery stories are published in Grapevine. The audio Grapevine is available on an app. Grapevine Reps can host an audio project to record member stories. Members suggest a podcast version of Grapevine stories.

3. How to present the Grapevine and its benefits? Group business meetings may decide to purchase subscriptions. We can get members involved in photography submissions and writing articles. “Carry the Message” project is a good way to do service. Books are available as E-books that can be gifted. Subscription challenge results and membership survey results are not yet available. Grapevine Board is looking at how to better bundle various subscriptions. A La Viña rep mentioned that she can’t get digital La Viña without buying the whole package. There is a new joke book coming out later this year.
